PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL ADDRESS

To the 62nd Annual Session of the East Fla. Dist. P. B. Sunday School Convention: Greetings:

Having the honor to serve this convention for (22) years, I feel more determined now than I was in the past years, to do my utmost, to carry this standard higher; depending on the Divine grace of Jesus Christ, that enables us to accomplish hard tasks. I am asking the cooperation of this August body, to let us work together in union, not as eye servants or men-pleasers but as servants of God.

Now I recommend that this convention assess each Sunday School a certain amount that they will know just what is required of them in the next convention. And each pastor and delegate shall inform them of the same.

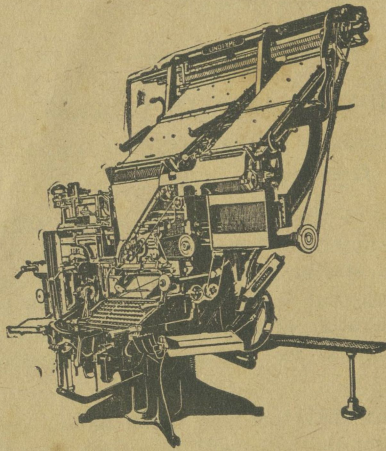

Second, I recommend that the money to print the minutes be given to the Secretary.

Third, I recommend that the Trustees of Griffin College, of the district, get a correct amount of money that is going to the school and it be announced in the convention before it adjourns. Whereas the convention made rules how to pay out and who to pay, and the convention proceeds to rule.

Humbly submitted,

S. C. CROMARTIE, President.
